Preamble

This code of conduct has been established in order to ensure that your visit to the Library is a positive experience for everyone. We expect your conduct to be respectful, considerate, lawful and responsible.

Code of Conduct

Unacceptable behaviours within the Library include, but are not limited to:

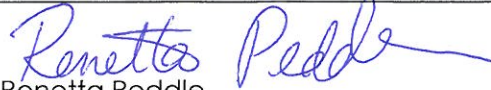

- conduct or language which is excessively noisy, disorderly, abusive, threatening, insulting, and/or harassing.
- behaviour that interferes with any person's comfort and use of the library.
- not adhering to the library's Internet Use Policy.
- photographing and/or filming without prior approval from a senior staff person.
- vandalism, graffiti, damage to or theft of Library property including materials and computers.
- selling, using, possessing or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
- leaving children who are under the age of 12 unattended or without supervision.
- using in-line skates, skateboards or bicycles in the Library.
- wearing no shirt or shoes.
- eating or drinking in the Makerspace Room and at the public computer stations.
- bringing pets (except trained assistance animals) into the Library.
- soliciting, canvassing, selling or distributing unsolicited materials.
- any other unlawful activities.

The Library is not responsible for personal belongings that are unattended. You may be required to make available for inspection all bags and carrying cases when leaving the library.

Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in suspension of library privileges, exclusion from the library, cost recovery of damages and/or prosecution.

Thank you for adhering to the Code of Conduct and helping do your part to make the library a safe, enjoyable and comfortable place for all.
