

Fall Programs

Registration starts September 04.

Happy Autumn! As we enter a new season and adjust to our "new normal" in the world, we have tailored our programming to provide something for everyone in a safe and fun way.

This fall we are offering four main types of programs:

Blended: Register for your program. Pick up your program supplies from the library's hold shelf the week before the program starts. You will receive instructions on how to access the virtual meeting or pre-recorded program video.

Virtual: Watch the program video via Facebook or YouTube. Follow the link on the event description. Registration is not required.

Take-Out: Drop into the library and pick up your program supplies from the program table to take home. Registration is not required.

Self Directed: Participate in a program individually, or as a family, in an open area of the library. Registration is not required.

Register online @ fspl.ca or call the library at 780-998-4275.
