

November & December Programs

Registration begins October 26

We Remember.

In November we honour the fallen soldiers on Remembrance Day by wearing a poppy. We also want to remember our stolen sisters during this month by making and wearing a Red Dress pin. The library is partnering with Families First Society, Family and Community Support Services, and Fort Saskatchewan Victim Services to raise awareness of missing and murdered Indigenous women for Family Violence Prevention month. Pick up a do-it-yourself Red Dress pin kit from the library and wear it in November to help raise awareness and learn more about this issue. The month will also feature a screening of the award-winning documentary "Quiet Killing" on November 23 at the Shell Theatre, exhibits in the foyer of City Hall, as well as book displays and recommended reading lists at the library.
