

Fort Saskatchewan Public Library

May & June Programs

Registration begins April 19, 2022

Welcome to our Writer in Residence

We are excited to welcome Rayanne Haines as our Writer in Residence for the month of May. Rayanne will split her time between one-on-one mentoring sessions for local writers and running writing workshops in the community.

If you would like to book a one-on-one session with Rayanne, you can reach her at 780-410-8665 or regionalwir@gmail.com.

Join Rayanne and Ali Bryan during their virtual presentation about writing on May 19.

Local Author: Marty Chan

Marty Chan loves to write. Before he became a kids' author, he worked in theatre, radio, and television. Now his passion is inspiring the next generation of lifelong readers and writers. Using a combination of storytelling, improv, humour, and stage magic, he shares his love of words with audiences young and old.

Fort Saskatchewan students in grades 3-6 have the opportunity to virtually meet Marty on May 30!

Seniors' Week @ FSPL

Happy Seniors' Week! The library has made special tea time goodie bags to celebrate the wonderful seniors in our community. Other highlights include our Living Classics Activity Package, Living Classics Take Out Packages, Tech Help Services and Large Print Collection. We love the seniors in our community, thank you for making FSPL a part of your day.
